

UI Arts Share Summer Arts Camp

The University of Iowa Office of Outreach & Engagement is offering a week-long summer arts camp. The Arts Share and Grant Wood Art Colony programs will administer the camp for children entering first through sixth grades. The half-day sessions will feature workshops in creative movement, theatre, music, visual arts, and writing.

Spark your child's creative side this summer!

Classes will be informal and energetic, in an intellectually safe, stimulating environment that fosters creative expression and interaction. Workshop leaders are UI graduate students.

Dates and times: M-F, June 10 - 14, 2019
8:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Location: University of Iowa Theatre Building
